Happy 4th of July!

What is RelyLocal?

A healthy community depends on a healthy economy, and both completely depend on the local businesses in our area. There are a number of great studies out there that illustrate how shopping locally will stimulate our local economy!

Simply put, more money spent with local businesses stays here, about 68%, as opposed to only 14% when shopping with national chains, and money spent online... well... simply leaves. Forever.

The Little Local Paper

is a weekly publication that is direct mailed to 10,000 homes on the first Tuesday of every month and distributed throughout Lawrence County each and every Tuesday. You can find it on the shelves of your favorite local businesses , as well as the local mini-marts, gas stations, grocery stores, banks, etc. You can pick one up just about anywhere!!!

ENJOY OUR PAPER!

Local Business Is Our ONLY Business

~Phil's Corner~

I Wish You Enough
2001 Bob Perks

At an airport, I overheard a father and his daughter in their last moments together. They had announced her plane's departure and standing near the door she said,
"Daddy, our life together has been more than enough. Your love is all I ever needed. I wish you enough too, Daddy."

They kissed good-bye and she left. He walked over towards the window where I was seated. Standing there I could see he wanted and needed to cry. I tried not to intrude on his privacy, but he welcomed me in by asking,
"Did you ever say good-bye to someone knowing it would be forever?"

"Yes, I have," I replied.
Saying that brought back memories I had of expressing my love and appreciation for all my Dad had done for me. Recognizing that his days were limited, I took the time to tell him face to face how much he meant to me. So I knew what this man was experiencing.

"Forgive me for asking, but why is this a forever good-bye?" I asked.
"I am old and she lives much too far away. I have challenges ahead and the reality is, her next trip back will be for my funeral," he said.

"When you were saying good-bye I heard you say, 'I wish you enough, may I ask what that means?"

He began to smile. "That's a wish that has been handed down from other generations. My parents used to say it to everyone."

He paused for a moment and looking up as if trying to remember it in detail, he smiled even more.
"When we said, 'I wish you enough,' we were wanting the other person to have a life filled with enough good things to sustain them"

He continued and then, turning toward me, he shared the following as if he were reciting it from memory:

I wish you enough sun to keep your attitude bright.
I wish you enough rain to appreciate the sun more.
I wish you enough happiness to keep your spirit alive.
I wish you enough pain so that the smallest joys in life appear much bigger.
I wish you enough gain to satisfy your wanting.
I wish you enough loss to appreciate all that you possess.
I wish you enough "Hellos" to get you through the final "Good-bye."

To all of our friends, family, and readers out there.....

I Wish You Enough!!!

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

¥ On July 22, 1598, William Shakespeare's play "The Merchant of Venice" is entered on the Stationers' Register. By decree of Queen Elizabeth, the Stationers' Register licensed printed works, giving the Crown tight control over all published material.

¥ On July 19, 1799, during Napoleon Bonaparte's Egyptian campaign, a French soldier discovers a black basalt slab inscribed with ancient writing near the town of Rosetta, about 35 miles north of Alexandria. Called the Rosetta Stone, the artifact held the key to solving the riddle of hieroglyphics, a written language that had been "dead" for nearly 2,000 years.

¥ On July 18, 1925, Volume One of Adolf Hitler's philosophical autobiography, "Mein Kampf," is published. It was a blueprint of his agenda for a Third Reich and a clear exposition of the nightmare that will envelope Europe from 1939 to 1945.

¥ On July 16, 1935, the world's first parking meter, known as Park-O-Meter No. 1, is installed on the southeast corner of what was then First Street and Robinson Avenue in Oklahoma City, Okla. Parking cost a nickel an hour. By the early 1940s, there were more than 140,000 parking meters operating in the United States.

¥ On July 17, 1955, Disneyland -- Walt Disney's metropolis of nostalgia, fantasy and futurism -- opens. The $17 million theme park was built on 160 acres of former orange groves in Anaheim, Calif. Today, Disneyland hosts more than 14 million visitors a year, who spend close to $3 billion.

¥ On July 20, 1969, at 10:56 p.m. EDT, American astronaut Neil Armstrong, 240,000 miles from Earth, speaks these words to more than a billion people listening at home: "That's one small step for man, one giant leap for mankind." Stepping off the lunar landing module Eagle, Armstrong became the first human to walk on the surface of the moon.

¥ On July 21, 1973, "Soul Makossa" is the first disco record to make the Top 40. It is now best remembered as the source of the rhythmic chant that appears in Michael Jackson's "Wanna Be Startin' Somethin'" in 1982.

Mountain Man and Teacher
By Betty Hoover DiRisio -Volunteer

Isaac Perry Rose was born February 1815 in Wolf Creek Township, Mercer County. He was the son of Isaac Rose who served under Captain Oliver H. Perry in the war of 1812, and grandson of Isaac Rose, Revolutionary War Soldier. At the age of 15 he came to New Castle. "I.P." would listen for hours to the hunting stories of Jesse DuShane, a noted pioneer settler of this area. The romance of becoming a great hunter and trapper led Rose, (with $3 in his pocket) and Joe Lewis, another New Castle native, out west where the two joined a fur trading company. Meeting up with Kit Carson, they spent a number of years in the Rocky Mountains trapping, hunting and fighting the Indians and grizzly bears. Rose was eventually captured by the Crow Indians and adopted into their tribe. Fearing an escape might risk his being captured and killed by the feared Blackfeet, he stayed until able to safely escape both tribes.

During one of his many encounters with the Indians, Rose was hit by a "poison ball" below the elbow joint, passing through the forearm. The Indians had learned a method of poisoning their bullets to make them more deadly. "A small piece of buffalo meat is placed on the end of a forked stick, and a rattlesnake is induced to strike his fangs into it. This poisoned meat is then dried, pounded up into powder and placed in a small bag. When the Indian intends to use one of these poisoned bullets, he first puts it in his mouth and chews it for some time, then dips it into the bag, and the slightest wounds from one of these bullets will cause death." Rose was near death for sometime, his arm had swollen to an enormous size and the skin peeled off to the shoulder. He lost a massive amount of blood, which is no doubt what allowed him to survive the ordeal. His injury left him little use of his arm. Returning to New Castle he resumed his studies and became a teacher. He taught continuously for 45 years in the county schools including all of the wards of New Castle, in Neshannock, Hickory, Slippery Rock, Big Beaver, and Taylor, but primarily in Shenango.

Rose Married Margaret Gibson, daughter of George Gibson, another Lawrence County pioneer. They had seven children: James V. Rose and Elmer Rose of Sharon; George G. Rose of Shawnee, Ill., O.L. Rose and Mrs. Edward Gardner of Shenango Township; Mrs. Mary J. Warnock of New Wilmington and Mrs. J. Watt Davidson of Wampum.

A book "Four Years in the Rockies" was written of his adventures out West with Kit Carson. It's more thrilling than any contrived Hollywood movie and is available to read online or download for free at Google Books.

PHOTO: Scott Clifton stars as "Liam" on "The Bold and The Beautiful"

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL
Bill insisted that he had nothing to do with Deacon's presence in Italy. Deacon charmed Alison into revealing the rest of Bill's plan. Meanwhile, Hope made a second attempt to walk down the aisle with Liam. Steffy couldn't help thinking about her own nuptials with Liam in Aspen. Katie discovered that Karen and Danielle were partners. As Hope and Liam finally wed, Bill began to accept that they were meant to be together. Caroline began to get serious with Thomas. Katie had an ultrasound to determine her baby's gender. Liam couldn't keep his mind off the events in Italy. Wait to See: Brooke discovers that Liam is hiding something. Hope tries to make amends with Steffy.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES
Nicole found a box of bullets in EJ's apartment. Rafe admitted to Carrie that he still had feelings for her. Gabi was disappointed that Chad was so consumed by the news of Melanie's kidnapping. Brady accused Ian of drugging him. EJ and Nicole discussed what might have been. Ian offered to send Brady to rehab. Friends and family gathered to pay tribute to Lexie and shared a group dance. Sami hoped that Lexie forgave her before she died. Kayla was seriously considering divorcing Steve after he rejoined the ISA. Daniel and Nicole went out on a real date. Wait to See: EJ learns the results of his polygraph test. Ian has proof that Brady is lying.

GENERAL HOSPITAL
Johnny told Kate that he could no longer help her figure out her past or it might jeopardize his relationship with Carly. Anna was forced to tell Tracy about her relationship with Luke. Heather demanded that Todd assign her the gossip column in his paper. Steve was worried that Elizabeth was falling for Jason again. Patrick went ballistic when he caught Maxie wearing Robin's robe. Heather was furious to hear that Sam landed a job at "The Sun." Kate had an important flashback. Michael was smitten while watching Starr record her new song. Elizabeth warned Sam not to push Jason away. Todd advised Carly not to trust Johnny. Wait to See: Kristina flirts with Trey. Sam watches the fireworks with McBain on the dock.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS
Abby caused a media sensation after she "Tweeted" from the trunk of Carmine's car after pretending to be kidnapped. Adam told Chelsea that he really did love her and wasn't just trying to make Sharon jealous. A scarf with Daisy's blood on it was found in the alley. Later, Ricky was shown throwing away Daisy's purse and other possessions. Michael told Daniel that he was wanted for questioning in Daisy's disappearance, while Eden insisted that Ricky had something to do with it instead. Later, Daniel was arrested and Heather was assigned to the case. Phyllis insisted on her son's innocence. Wait to See: Paul feels guilty after a violent confrontation. Lauren is on the verge of being arrested.

The Right Way to Remove Ticks

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: I wanted to pass on to your readers something I found that works very well for removing ticks: Icy-Hot. My little dog got a tick right in our own yard. I tried using a match, but I was so nervous that I might burn her. My sister told me to use Icy-Hot. I'm so relieved it did the trick! -- Diane O., Palmyra, N.Y.

DEAR DIANE: Interesting tip! One way that we used to remove ticks from our dogs many years ago was by smearing a dollop of Vaseline over the embedded tick, covering it completely. Eventually, the tick would suffocate or try to escape.

In recent years, however, veterinarians and disease-control experts have recommended against using Vaseline because it can take up to 48 hours for the tick to suffocate. Ticks need to be removed quickly -- within 24 hours or less. Why? Because after a day of feeding, the tick is completely engorged with blood. To keep feeding, it regurgitates that blood right back into your pet -- and if the tick is carrying a disease like Lyme, your pet is likely to be infected.

Ditto with the old-fashioned match trick. When a lighted match is held to the tick, the tick often pulls out quickly -- but it tends to regurgitate as it does so.

So what's the best way to remove ticks? Experts recommend tweezers, grabbing as close to the tick's head as possible. Slowly pull the head out without twisting or jerking -- being careful not to squish the tick for the reasons listed above. If the tick's head or part of its head breaks off in the skin, monitor your pet for a few days. It should be worked out by your pet's own body, but if signs of infection appear, contact your veterinarian.

Send your questions or comments to ask@pawscorner.com, or write to Paw's Corner, c/o King Features Weekly Service, P.O. Box 536475, Orlando, FL 32853-6475. For more pet care-related advice and information, visit www.pawscorner.com.

How It Works: Local businesses want to reward you for your loyalty and support by offering you special deals on everything from your daily coffee to a new roof for your house. These rewards can save you a few cents on a car wash or a few hundred dollars on car repair. And, the best news is - the cards are valid for one full year! Our members will post their ever-changing "Rewards" right here on the site. All you need to do is show your own Local Rewards card to the vendor in order to receive their special reward.

How Much Does It Cost? As we launch the Local Rewards program, we'll be selling the cards at a reduced rate of only $10. (That is less than $0.03 per day for access to major savings while supporting the local community!) We do anticipate this price to increase soon, so don't wait, buy early - buy often! They also make fantastic gift cards!

Where To Buy: The Local Rewards cards are popping up all over town. You can find them at: Little Johnny's II, Hill House Restaurant, Shipping Depot+, Wilson's Automotive, Family Craft Center, Pizza Mans Pizza, & Cast's Bakery in New Castle, Lori L's Hair Care Studio, Grand Paws, Five Two Six Salon, Blocher Jewelers, Soother Tanning, & Puff n' Smoke in Ellwood City, Scrap Booking Expressions, Township Tan, Favorite Automation & Hot Headz Family Hair and Nail Salon in Union Twp., Mister Bs, Glo-Tique Sun Spa, Dairy Queen, & Walmo Dry Cleaning, in Neshannock Twp., Rebecca's Salon, Spa, & Boutique in New Wilmington, Italian Take Out in Pulaski Twp., Paramount Physical Therapy, Shenango Sunoco, Gold East & Mister B's in Shenango twp. Country Corner Bake Shoppe in Laurel, Neshannock Creek Inn in Volant and more to come. You can also find them through various fund-raising campaigns, or you can always buy them directly from us. Depending on where you purchase your Local Rewards card, a hefty portion of the proceeds will go toward supporting a non-profit, a school sports team, or the RelyLocal campaign to help stimulate the local economy.
