GOT REWARDS? SAVE THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS!!!!

USE YOUR RELYLOCAL REWARDS CARD AT OVER 150 LOCAL BUSINESSES IN LAWRENCE AND MERCER COUNTIES!

How It Works: Local businesses want to reward you for your loyalty and support by offering you special deals on everything from your daily coffee to a new roof for your house. These rewards can save you a few cents on a car wash or a few hundred dollars on car repair. And, the best news is - the cards are valid for one full year! All you need to do is show your own Local Rewards card to the vendor in order to receive their special reward.

How Much Does It Cost? Only $10 per card! You will have access to over 150 Local Business Rewards at your fingertips! You can find the Rewards Offers for Lawrence and Mercer Counties listed on page 15 of our paper. They also make GREAT gift cards!

Where To Buy: The Local Rewards cards are popping up all over town. You can purchase your card at the following locations:

Mercer County

La Isla, C&C Xchange & Tops Buffet in Hermitage,
Dairy Queen in West Middlesex.

Must have/show a current Rewards Card for offers.

Cannot be used with any other offers.

Lawrence County

New Castle: Little Johnny's II, Hill House Restaurant, Shipping Depot+, Wilson's Automotive, Family Craft Center, Pizza Mans Pizza, and Sons of Italy Ellwood City: Lori Ls Hair Care Studio, Grand Paws, Blocher Jewelers, Soother Tanning, & Puff n' Smoke Union Twp.: Scrap Booking Expressions, Township Tan, Favorite Automation & Hot Headz Family Hair and Nail Salon Neshannock Twp.: Mister Bs, Glo-Tique Sun Spa, Bunny's Card Shop, & Complete Design New Wilmington: Rebecca's Salon, Spa, & Boutique Shenango twp.: Paramount Physical Therapy, Shenango Sunoco, Gold East & Mister B's in Laurel: Country Corner Bake Shoppe Volant: Neshannock Creek Inn

You can also find them through various Fund-Raising Campaigns, or you can always buy them Directly from us.

Depending on where you purchase your Local Rewards card, a hefty portion of the proceeds will go toward supporting a non-profit, a school sports team, or the RelyLocal campaign to help stimulate the local economy.

RELY LOCAL BUSINESS DIRECTORY

PHIL'S CORNER

As We Enter The New Year

Take a walk with me . . . Down Memory Lane. If you are old enough, take a stroll with me. Close your eyes and go back . . . Before the Internet, before semiautomatics, before X-Box or Super Nintendo, before crack, way back. I'm talkin' 'bout hide and go seek at dusk, Simon Says, Kick the Can, Red light - Green light. Lunch boxes with a thermos. Going home for lunch. Penny candy from the store, hopscotch, butterscotch. Skates with keys. Jacks, Mother May I? Hula Hoops and sunflower seeds. Whist, Old Maid, and Crazy Eights. Wax lips and mustaches. Mary Janes, saddle shoes and Coke bottles with the names of cities on the bottom. Running through the sprinkler. Circle pins, bobby pins, Mickey Mouse Club, Rocky & Bullwinkle, Fran & Ollie, Spin & Marty .. all in black & white.

When around the corner seemed far away, and going downtown seemed like going somewhere. Climbing trees, making forts ... backyard shows, lemonade stands, Cops and Robbers, Cowboys and Indian ... Remember that?

Not steppin' on a crack or you'll break your mother's back ... paper chains at Christmas, silhouettes of Lincoln and Washington ... the smell of paste in school and Evening in Paris.

Remember when ... there were two types of sneakers for girls and boys (Keds & PF Flyer) and the only time you wore them at school was for "gym." And the girls had those ugly uniforms.

When it took five minutes for the TV to warm up. When nearly everyone's Mom was at home when the kids got home from school. When nobody owned a purebred dog. When a quarter was a decent allowance, and another quarter, a huge bonus. When you'd reach into a muddy gutter for a penny. When girls neither dated nor kissed until late high school, if then. When your Mom wore nylons that came in two pieces. When all of your male teachers wore neckties and female teachers had their hair done everyday and wore high heels.

When you got your windshield cleaned, oil checked, and gas pumped, without asking, all for free, every time. And, you didn't pay for air. And, you got trading stamps to boot! When laundry detergent had free glasses, dishes or towels hidden inside the box.

When any parent could discipline any kid, or feed him or use him to carry groceries, and nobody, not even the kid, thought a thing of it. When it was considered a great privilege to be taken out to dinner at a real restaurant with your parents. When they threatened to keep kids back a grade if they failed ... and did!

When the worst thing you could do at school was smoke in the bathrooms, flunk a test or chew gum. And the prom was in the auditorium and we danced to an orchestra, and all the girls wore pastel gowns and the boys wore suits for the first time and we stayed out all night.

When a '57 Chevy was everyone's dream car ... to cruise, peel out, lay rubber. And people went steady and girls wore the boys class ring with an inch of wrapped dental floss or yarn coated with pastel frost nail polish so it would fit her finger.

And no one ever asked where the car keys were 'cause they were always in the car, in the ignition, and the doors were never locked. And you got in big trouble if you accidentally locked the doors at home, since no one ever had a key.

Remember when stuff from the store came without safety caps and hermetic seals 'cause no one had yet tried to poison a perfect stranger. And, with all our progress, don't you just wish, just once, you could slip back in time and savor the slower pace ... and share it with the children of today?

When being sent to the principal's office was nothing compared to the fate that awaited a misbehaving student at home. Basically, we were in fear for our lives, but it wasn't because of drive by shootings, drugs, gangs, etc. Our parents and grandparents were a much bigger threat! But we all survived because their love was greater than the threat.

Didn't that feel good, just to go back and say, "Yeah, I remember that!!!!!!"

Boy if we could just bring back the Good Ole' Days!
Happy New Year Everyone!!!

Working on a Dream

By, Anthony Kladitis
<http://www.dreamingnorth.blogspot.com>

My Best Christmas ...

The Christmas party was over. Several of the men were sitting at a table reminiscing about the Christmas days of their childhood. The conversation turned to the best Christmas of their lives. As they went around the table, they noticed one man hadn't said anything. They asked, "Come on.. Frank, What was your best Christmas?" Frank said, "The best Christmas I ever had was when I didn't even get a present." The others were surprised. They had to hear the story. Frank began to talk...

"I grew up in New York. It was the great depression and we were poor. My Mother had died when I was just eight years old. My Dad had a job but he only worked two or three days a week and that was considered good. We lived in a walk up and we just barely had enough food and clothes. I was a kid and didn't really notice."

"My Dad was a proud man. He had one suit. He would wear that suit to work. When he came home, he would take off the jacket and sit in his chair still wearing his shirt, tie and his vest. He had this big old pocket watch that had been given to him by my mother. He would sit in his chair, the chain from watch hanging out, connected to the fob in his vest buttonhole. That watch was his proudest possession. Sometimes, I would see him, just sitting there, looking at his precious watch. I bet he was thinking of my mother."

"One year, I was about twelve, chemistry sets were the big thing. They cost two dollars. That was big money but every kid wanted a chemistry set including me. I began to pester my Dad about it a month or so before Christmas. You know, I made all the same kid promises. I would be good. I would do my chores. I wouldn't ask for anything else again. My dad would just say, 'We'll see..'"

"Three days before Christmas he took me to the carts. There was this area where all the small merchants keep their street carts. They would undersell the stores and you could get a good buy. He would take me to a cart and pick out some little toy. "Son, would like something like this?" I, of course, would tell him, 'No, I want a chemistry set.' We tramped to nearly every cart and him showing me some toy car or toy gun, and me refusing it. I never thought that he didn't have the money to buy a chemistry set. Finally, he said, we better go home and come back the next day."

"All the way home, I pouted and whined about the chemistry set. I repeated the promises. I said I didn't care if I never got another present. I had to have that chemistry set. I know now that my Dad felt guilty about being able to give me more. He probably thought he was a failure as a Father and I think he blamed himself for my mother's death. As we were walking up the stairs, he told me, that he would see what he could do about getting me the chemistry set. That night I couldn't even sleep. I could see myself inventing some new material. I could see the New York Times.. 'Boy wins Nobel Prize!'"

"The next day after work, my Dad took me back to the carts. On the way, I remember, he bought a loaf of bread, he was carrying it under his arm. We came to first cart and he told me to pick out the set I wanted. They were all alike, but I went through them, like I was choosing a diamond. I found the right one and I almost yelled. "This one..Dad!"

"I can still see him, reaching into his pant's pocket, to get the money. As he pulled the two dollars out, one fluttered to the ground, he bent over to pick it up and as he did, the chain fell out of his vest. The chain swung back and forth. 'No watch.' In a flash, I realized that my Dad had sold his watch. He sold his most precious possession to buy me a chemistry set. He sold his watch, the last thing my mother had given him, to buy me a chemistry set."

"I grabbed his arms and I yelled, 'No.' I had never grabbed my Dad before and I certainly had never yelled at him. I can see him, looking at me, a strange look on his face. 'No, Dad, you don't have to buy me anything.' The tears were burning in my eyes. 'Dad, I know you love me.' We walked away from the cart and I remember my Dad holding my hand all the way home."

Frank looked at the men. "You know, there isn't enough money in the world to buy that moment. You see, at that moment, I knew that my Dad loved me more than anything in the world."

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL

The Forresters did their best to celebrate Christmas despite missing Stephanie. Pam received a sign that Stephanie was there in spirit. Eric's holiday didn't go quite as planned. Hope was confident that Liam would want to reunite now that he knew what really caused their split. Katie told Caroline that she supported her in exposing Bill's deception. Steffy made sure that Hope knew that she was a force to be reckoned with when it came to Liam. Bill warned Caroline that he would get even with her someday. Hope asked Liam point blank for an answer about a future together. Katie suspected that Bill had a drinking problem. Wait to See: Liam introduces Rick to his fist. Caroline suffers a terrible accident.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES

Brady fell hard for Kristen while she continued to manipulate him. Sami wrestled with her emotions over EJ and Rafe. Doug and Julie arrived in Salem for Christmas. Lucas made a kind gesture toward Sonny. Victor showed his softer side by playing Santa for a group of sick children. Sami accepted EJ's invitation for New Year's Eve after Rafe said he was through with her. Later, Nicole and Rafe agreed to spend the holiday together, where they were sure to run into their exes. John walked in on Brady and Kristen in bed together. Will began having second thoughts about not claiming his unborn child. Wait to See: Brady and John get into a heated argument. Gabi offers a truce to Sonny.

GENERAL HOSPITAL

Lulu wanted an explanation as to why Maxie didn't contact her when she began having abdominal pain. Kristina told her mom that she was moving to California with Trey. Ellie asked Spinelli if he regretted choosing her over Maxie. Starr and Michael spent the holiday getting reacquainted. Todd caught Sam trying to break into his safe. Connie injured Starr during a struggle. Sabrina fantasized about spending New Year's with Patrick. Lucy continued to manipulate Tracy and AJ. Kristina was suspicious of Connie. Olivia continued to be haunted by visions. Emma told Sabrina how much she disliked Britt. Wait to See: Todd and Carly seal New Year's with a kiss. Starr's humanity is tested.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS

Billy urged Jack to forget about Newman Enterprises and to just concentrate on running the family business. Nick found some dog tags among Avery's belongings. Chelsea misunderstood Adam's intentions of being with her on Christmas. Sharon and Nick shared a nice holiday together before Nick went back to Avery. Michael invited a battered Jamie home with him and Lauren. Chloe offered a reward to find her stolen money. Phyllis planned an intervention for Jack after she found him passed out. Lily brushed off Tyler's crush and told Cane that she only wanted him. Katherine and Tucker put aside their differences for Christmas Day. Wait to See: Daniel says goodbye to Phyllis. Victor uses his status to get information from Mason.

THE HISTORY CHANNEL

- On Jan. 18, 1803, in a secret message to Congress, President Thomas Jefferson requests funding for the Lewis and Clark expedition to explore the mysterious Far West and perhaps find a Northwest Passage to the Pacific. Jefferson officially asked Congress for $2,500, though some sources indicate the expedition ultimately cost closer to $50,000.
- On Jan. 14, 1875, theologian, musician, philosopher and Nobel Prize-winning physician Albert Schweitzer is born in Upper-Alsace, Germany. Schweitzer's philosophy revolved around what he called "reverence for life," the idea that all life must be respected and loved.
- On Jan. 19, 1883, two steamers, the Cimbria and the Sultan, collide in heavy fog in the North Sea, resulting in the deaths of 357 people. For those who did not make it into a lifeboat, the cold water was deadly. Hypothermia and drowning claimed hundreds of lives within minutes.
- On Jan. 16, 1942, actress Carole Lombard, famous for her roles in screwball comedies such as "My Man Godfrey" and for her marriage to actor Clark Gable, is killed when the TWA DC-3 plane she is traveling in crashes en route from Las Vegas to Los Angeles.
- On Jan. 15, 1951, Ilse Koch, wife of the commandant of the Buchenwald concentration camp, is sentenced to life imprisonment in a court in West Germany for her extraordinary sadism. The "Witch of Buchenwald" collected lampshades, book covers and gloves made from the skin of tattooed camp prisoners.
- On Jan. 17, 1966, an American B-52 bomber collides with a KC-135 jet tanker over Spain's Mediterranean coast, dropping three 70-kiloton hydrogen bombs near the town of Palomares and another into the sea. The U.S. eventually settled some 500 claims by residents whose health was adversely affected.
- On Jan. 20, 1980, President Jimmy Carter proposes that the 1980 Summer Olympics be moved from the planned host city, Moscow, if the Soviet Union failed to withdraw its troops from Afghanistan within a month. The United States was one of some 60 countries that eventually boycotted the Moscow Olympics.
