

Kelso Senior Center
106 .
NW 8th Avenue-Kelso WA
Code of Ethics

Preamble

The primary mission of the Kelso Senior Center is to enhance human well being of seniors, and to assist in helping meet the social outlet needs of senior citizens. The goal is to provide recreational and social activities on site as well as coordinating alternative off site opportunities.

The staff and volunteers at the Kelso Senior Center strive to promote a healthy, stress free, social interaction that is sensitive to cultural and ethnic diversity.

Mission Statement

The Mission of the Kelso Senior Center is to enhance the quality of life and autonomy of individuals aged 50 and above, by offering a broad range of services and support, including nutrition, activities, information and referral, education and opportunity for peer interaction, with concern for mental, emotional and physical well being.

Code of Ethics

The Kelso Senior Center mission is rooted in a Code of Ethics which is embraced by the staff, volunteers and Board of Directors. Our Code of Ethics is the foundation of our purpose and perspective. Our goal is to offer consistent support to members and visitors by:

- Offering diverse social opportunities in a safe environment
- Protecting the importance of positive human relations
- Discouraging the use of foul language and negative interaction
- Valuing the use of integrity in the treatment of all members and guests