How the poor live-

One day, a father of a very wealthy family took his son on a trip to the country with the sole purpose of showing his son how poor people live.

They spent a couple hours on the farm of what would be considered a very poor family.

On their return from their trip, the father asked his son, "How was the trip?"

"It was great, Dad."

"Did you see how poor people live?" the father asked.

"Oh yeah," said the son.

"So, tell me, what did you learn from the trip?" asked the father.

The son answered, "I saw that we have one dog and they had four. We have a pool that reaches to the middle of our garden, and they have a creek that has no end. We have imported lanterns in our garden, and they have the stars at night. Our patio reaches to the front yard, and they have the whole horizon. We have a small piece of land to live on, and they have fields that go beyond our sight. We have servants who serve us, but they serve others. We buy our food, but they grow theirs. We have walls around our property to protect us; they have friends to protect them."

The boy's father was speechless.

Then his son added, "Thanks, Dad, for showing me how poor we really are."

¥ On June 15, 1877, Henry Ossian Flipper, born a slave in Thomasville, Ga., in 1856, becomes the first black cadet to graduate from the United States Military Academy at West Point, N.Y. Flipper was never spoken to by a white cadet during his four years at West Point.

¥ On June 16, 1884, the first roller coaster in America opens at Coney Island, in Brooklyn, N.Y. Known as a switchback railway, it traveled approximately 6 mph and cost a nickel to ride.

¥ On June 12, 1942, Anne Frank, a young Jewish girl living in Amsterdam, receives a diary for her 13th birthday. A month later, she and her family went into hiding from the Nazis in rooms behind her father's office. Anne's diary, detailing their two years in hiding, was published in 1947.

¥ On June 14, 1951, the U.S. Census Bureau dedicates UNIVAC, the world's first commercially produced electronic digital computer. UNIVAC, which stood for Universal Automatic Computer, used thousands of vacuum tubes for computation and was the forerunner of today's digital computer.

¥ On June 13, 1966, the Supreme Court hands down its decision in Miranda v. Arizona, establishing the principle that all criminal suspects must be advised of their rights before interrogation. The roots of the Miranda decision go back to 1963 when Ernesto Miranda confessed to a crime and later recanted, unaware that he didn't have to say anything at all.

¥ On June 17, 1972, five of President Richard Nixon's re-election employees are arrested for burglary in the Democratic National Committee headquarters at the Watergate Complex in Washington, D.C. ELLHURST DANCEHALL / ROLLER SKATING RINK, Old Route 422 (E. of 388) Slippery Rock Township:

Sitting at the foot of "Weller Hill" across from Swan Lake, in an area that was once known as Weigletown, the Ellhurst was built as a dance hall at the beginning of the Big Band Era. Originally owned by Hugh A. & Ella (McEntee) McCormick, ELLHURST was named in her honor... the "EL" for Ella and "HURST" for place/home. It was also referred to as the "McCormick Pavilion" and the "McCormick Picnic Grounds". It was built in 1924/1925 on property adjacent to their residence by carpenter, Patrick McCormick, Hugh's cousin. The structure, for a time, was said to have had the largest unsupported roof area (50x79 feet) of any dancehall between Pittsburgh and Lake Erie. (Patrick McCormick was a well known and respected carpenter, who had built the domed enclosure that housed the Carousel at Cascade Park in 1921.) In its heyday, The Ellhurst hosted a number of Big Bands, including Paul Whiteman's Orchestra, Guy Lombardo and Stan Kenton to name a few. It was used as a hall for wedding receptions and reunions, as an auction barn and eventually a roller skating rink. Hugh sold the property in 1946, but the party defaulted on the mortgage that he held. It was taken back and resold to George & Viola (Jones) Rohde in 1947. Bands continued to play at the Ellhurst in the late '40's & early '50's including Woody Woodale Band, Jimmy Kish Band, Froggy Cortez and Hawkshaw Hawkins. While the facility has been very well maintained over the years, little has changed. The Rohde family replaced the original wood used on the dance floor with maple that has held up extremely well for roller skating; the old band stand still has the original cherry wood flooring; the original open arched-beamed ceiling has been covered by a drop ceiling for heating and cooling efficiency; knotty pine paneling has been added to line the walls; and the front of the building has been expanded, obscuring the original arched roof, as seen in the above photo. A contractor recently working at the facility found that the building is still plumb and the roof structurally sound. Quite unusual for a structure that has been in continuous use for 87 years and a testament to the craftsmanship of Patrick McCormick and those of his day. As stated, the Ellhurst Roller Skating Rink is still in use, and lovingly cared for and run by Ms. Betsy Rohde Cratty.

THE BOLD AND THE BEAUTIFUL

Rick admitted to Brooke that she was right all along when it came to Amber. Caroline explained to Thomas why she kept her secret from Bill all these years. Marcus and Dayzee began planning their wedding. Hope confronted her fears of abandonment during her therapy sessions. Bill felt certain that the key to destroying Hope was through Deacon. Stephanie criticized Ridge for offering to design Hope's wedding dress. Steffy issued Liam an ultimatum about their relationship. Hope had a surprise wedding guest on her list. Deacon weighed his options after Bill offered him a deal. Wait to See: Marcus confronts Justin. Bill misinterprets the context of a business meeting.

DAYS OF OUR LIVES

Everyone celebrated the news of Stefano's arrest -- until a CIA agent arrived and demanded his release. Victor admitted to Maggie that he was the one who stole her harvested eggs. Lexie collapsed in Abe's arms. Carrie was devastated to learn that she was pregnant with Austin's child. Lucas praised Sami for her honesty about meeting up with EJ in the park. Nicole found that her feelings for Rafe expanded beyond gratefulness. Gabi's plan to drive a wedge between Chad and Melanie backfired. Marlena went out and bought a gun after Stefano once again got off scot-free. Carrie assured Nicole that she would keep her secret from EJ. Kate and Sami had a rare bonding moment over Sami's troubles with Will. Stefano gained new respect for being a patriot. Wait to See: Rafe and Carrie realize they can't be together. Gabi hires someone to be her stalker.

GENERAL HOSPITAL

Connie admitted that she framed Sonny for the murder of Starr's husband and daughter. Jason told Elizabeth that he wasn't sure he could raise Franco's baby as his own. Dante reported to a crime scene only to find Lulu there first. Michael and Starr had a chance encounter at the police station. Molly witnessed a hug between Jason and Elizabeth. Anna helped Felicia cope with the stress surrounding Maxie's conviction. Later, Maxie was harassed by another inmate at the jail. Carly tried to get past Johnny's cheating on her. Kristina left college and came home to Port Charles. Starr was shocked that Michael wouldn't be testifying against her. The Quartermaines were stunned by the news that Franco was related to them. Wait to See: Heather has a strange new companion. Maxie foils the prosecution's case against Matt.

THE YOUNG AND THE RESTLESS

Jack found Victor and Sharon's budding romance rather amusing. Danny was understanding of Daniel's reason for marrying his enemy, Daisy. Nikki accepted Jack's marriage proposal. Danny warned Phyllis that Ricky was snooping around in her past. Sofia decided to file for divorce after Neil admitted that he wasn't attracted to her. Jack was thrilled that the judge found in his favor against Genevieve and Victor. Daniel had trouble coping with his guilt on the anniversary of Cassie's death. Later, Cassie's family gathered at the ranch to honor her memory. Wait to See: Danny and Christine reunite. Sharon reveals a shocking secret about Billy's past. (c) 2012 King Features Synd., Inc.

Little Big Books

Q: I have several Big Little Books, all copyrighted between 1939 and 1941, depicting the adventures of such boyhood heroes as The Phantom, Buck Rogers, The Lone Ranger, The Green Hornet and Dick Tracy. Do these books have any value? --Gene, Goodyear, Ariz.

A: Yes, they do. The first Big Little Book, "The Adventures of Dick Tracy," was published by the Whitman company just before Christmas in 1932. The books are distinctive in that they look like a 4-inch block of wood sawed off the end of a two-by-four. Check out the Big Little Book Club, P.O. Box 1242, Danville, CA 94526. To get an idea of current prices, go to www.biglittlebooks.com. ***

Q: Last year, I acquired a miniature cast-iron sleigh with eight reindeer that move up and down when pulled. It looks very old, but I can't find anything specific about it. Can you help? -- Don, Sun City West, Ariz.

A: The picture you sent makes me think the sleigh is not as old as you think. This obviously is a Christmas table decoration, and the paintwork doesn't appear to be as detailed as in most of the older pieces I have seen. A good place to begin your research might be to invest in a fairly good guide. A used copy of "The Collectors Encyclopedia of Toys, Banks, Cast Iron Windup Autos and More, with Prices" by L-W Books is available for $6.94 at www.amazon.com. ***

Q: I have a scale that I believe is from about 1937 or earlier. It is the same one seen in the movie "A House Without a Christmas Tree." It was manufactured by the Hobart Company in Dayton, Ohio. Any idea of how old it is and what its value would be? -- Inge, Granite City, Ill.

A: I'm not sure if your scale has a three- or 30-pound capacity. There is a difference when it comes to prices. The three-pound scale was often found in candy shops, the larger ones in other retail outlets. The scale was manufactured throughout the 1930s and '40s. I found one of the smaller scales being offered in an online auction for $40.

Preventing Dog Attacks

DEAR PAW'S CORNER: My dog, "Andie," is a pretty laid-back border collie, well-socialized to other dogs and people. However, I am dismayed when a child runs up to her or another strange dog to pet or hug her. Andie tolerates these "surprise hugs" well, but other dogs may not be so well-trained. Can you please remind your readers about the right way to approach a strange dog? -- Carol J., Pittsburgh

DEAR CAROL: You got it! Approaching a dog, even a dog you know, should be done with caution and respect. Parents need to teach their children how to behave around dogs. More than half of the 4.7 million Americans bitten by dogs last year were children. The American Veterinary Medical Association (avma.org) and Prevent the Bite (preventthebite.org) have joined the U.S. Postal Service to call attention to preventing dog bites. Here are some tips:

- Never leave a baby or a small child alone with a dog, even the family pet.
- Teach children not to approach strange dogs, run up to dogs to hug them or try to pet them through a fence.
- Always ask permission of a dog's owner before petting the dog. You should pet the dog first before letting your child pet the dog.
- Learn the right way to approach and pet a dog, including your own dog. It should first be able to see you and sniff you. If the dog tenses, bristles, growls or backs away, back off.
- Do not approach tethered or confined dogs, sleeping dogs or mothers taking care of puppies.
- If you're passing a dog, whether on or off a leash, walk steadily and calmly past, without making direct eye contact. Never run.

Send your questions or comments to ask@pawscorner.com, or write to Paw's Corner, c/o King Features Weekly Service, P.O. Box 536475, Orlando, FL 32853-6475. For more pet care-related advice and information, visit www.pawscorner.com.

How It Works: Local businesses want to reward you for your loyalty and support by offering you special deals on everything from your daily coffee to a new roof for your house. These rewards can save you a few cents on a car wash or a few hundred dollars on car repair. And, the best news is - the cards are valid for one full year! Our members will post their ever-changing "Rewards" right here on the site. All you need to do is show your own Local Rewards card to the vendor in order to receive their special reward.

How Much Does It Cost? As we launch the Local Rewards program, we'll be selling the cards at a reduced rate of only $10. (That is less than $0.03 per day for access to major savings while supporting the local community!) We do anticipate this price to increase soon, so don't wait, buy early - buy often! They also make fantastic gift cards!

Where To Buy: The Local Rewards cards are popping up all over town. You can find them at: Little Johnny's II, Hill House Restaurant, Shipping Depot+, Wilson's Automotive, Family Craft Center, Pizza Mans Pizza, & Cast's Bakery in New Castle, Lori L's Hair Care Studio, Grand Paws, Five Two Six Salon, Blocher Jewelers, Soother Tanning, & Puff n' Smoke in Ellwood City, Scrap Booking Expressions, Township Tan, Favorite Automation & Hot Headz Family Hair and Nail Salon in Union Twp., Mister Bs, Glo-Tique Sun Spa, Dairy Queen, & Walmo Dry Cleaning, in Neshannock Twp., Rebecca's Salon, Spa, & Boutique in New Wilmington, Italian Take Out in Pulaski Twp., Paramount Physical Therapy, Shenango Sunoco, Gold East & Mister B's in Shenango twp. Country Corner Bake Shoppe in Laurel, Neshannock Creek Inn in Volant and more to come. You can also find them through various fund-raising campaigns, or you can always buy them directly from us. Depending on where you purchase your Local Rewards card, a hefty portion of the proceeds will go toward supporting a non-profit, a school sports team, or the RelyLocal campaign to help stimulate the local economy.

Local Boy Scout Troops teamed up with The American Legion this Memorial Day and visited Greenwood Cemetery. They spent their time there placing American flags on the graves of those who had served in our Armed Forces to protect us and our freedom.

We, at The Little Local Paper, would like to acknowledge them and SALUTE them for a job well done!

Thank you for your time and efforts to help us all remember the men and women who have fought for our country.
